Introduction to Rhetoric and Communications (3 credit hours)

Students majoring in Rhetoric and Communications are required to take RHET-1120(3) Introduction to Rhetoric and Communications. Students majoring in Rhetoric and Communications who have been exempted from the Academic Writing Requirement are still required to complete RHET-1120(3). Credits earned in Academic Writing courses do not count as a fulfillment of the requirement to take RHET-1120(3).

Academic Writing (3 credit hours)

Note: Unless exempted, all Rhetoric and Communications students are required to complete 3 credit hours of Academic Writing.

If a student takes RHET-1110(6) Academic Writing: Extended or the 6-credit hour version of RHET-11153(6) Academic Writing: English as an Additional Language (EAL), only 3 credit hours will be counted towards the Major (although all 6 credit hours will count towards the degree). Students can choose one of the following Academic Writing designations:

REQUIREMENTS FOR A CERTIFICATE IN WRITING

The Certificate in Writing is a 30-credit-hour program that consists of current course offerings in the Department of Rhetoric, Writing, and Communications, and allows students the flexibility to create a program of study that focuses on elements of written communication, primarily in terms of genre, audience, and textual processes. Students must apply to graduate with a Certificate. Application forms are available in the Department office.

Students completing any degree program are eligible to complete the Certificate. All courses in the Certificate program are also part of the Rhetoric and Communications degree program, and they can be used toward a 3-year, 4-year, or Honours BA in Rhetoric and Communications. The Certificate in Writing is available as a stand-alone credential for non-degree seeking students or returning graduates (note that some courses, particularly those electives in English and Theatre and Film, come with prerequisites that do not count toward the Certificate).

Admission Requirement: Students must fill out a Certificate Declaration Form with the Department of Rhetoric, Writing, and Communications, and are encouraged to consult with a member of the Department in planning their course of study.

Graduation Requirement : 30 credit hours

Residence Requirement : 30 credit hours

JOINT COMMUNICATIONS DEGREE/DIPLOMA (UW/RRC Polytech)

The University of Winnipeg offers a combined degree/diploma program in Communications in cooperation with RRC Polytech. Generally, students begin at the University of Winnipeg, completing at least 60 credit hours before proceeding to RRC Polytech, where they take the two-year Creative Communications Program. The final 12 credit hours of University of Winnipeg courses must be taken during these two years at RRC Polytech if the student wishes to graduate within four years; otherwise, these credit hours may be completed before or after attending RRC Polytech. Students are granted block transfer of 48 credit hours for their Creative Communications Diploma and granted a B.A. in Communications once they have received their diploma and completed the prescribed 72 credit hours of study at the University of Winnipeg.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Applications to the University of Winnipeg alone do not constitute applications to the Joint Communications Program. Students must apply separately to RRC Polytech for admission to Creative Communications. In their applications to each institution, students must indicate their interest in the Joint Communications Program.

RRC Polytech does not reserve seats for joint degree students. You are advised to apply to the RRC Polytech start date you wish to attend once it is advertised on RRC Polytech's website at www.rrc.ca/cre. Offers of admittance will be made to qualified applicants based on portfolio scores in descending order until all available seats are filled. The annual application intake opens on March 1 and closes the following February. For example, for the Fall 2023
