SAMPLE FIRST YEAR

For a 4-year BA in Rhetoric and Communications -

NOTE: This sample first year is representative of the courses you may take. For many of our programs, you may choose another set of courses and still be well on your way to a degree. Also, for most programs you do not have to take 30 credit hours (five full courses) in your first year.

"A degree in Rhetoric and Communications will not teach you what to think, it will teach you how to think. For me, this meant learning how language, media, and communication technology are embedded with ideology, despite their appearance as neutral tools. The ability to interpret, analyze, and think outside of the instructions you are given will serve you throughout your professional and academic life, regardless of the field you choose. If that endorsement sounds convincing, you can thank this department for honing my well-developed communication skills. If not, then congratulations! Your critical eye will make you a perfect fit for this program."

- Benjamin Dueck (BA 4-year '19), who went on to graduate studies at University of Toronto
